Senator Cantor moved to amend by striking out all reference to the Administration and confining the indorsement of Senator Hill to his opposition to the un-American policy of an income tax. Senator Bradley said he thought the resolution might be amended by thanking Senator Hill for his actions which made possible the present Republican majority in the Senate. Ever since the snap Convention in Albany, the career of Senator Hill had been one chapter of blunders.

Assembly Adopts the Conference Committee's Report.

(By Associated Press)
ALBANY, April 11.—In the Assembly to-day Mr. Sheffield presented a report from the Conference Committee on his bill incorporating the Provident Loan Society. The report is favorable to the amendment made by the Senate, striking out the three years limitation and mak-ing the existence of the Society indefinite.

Mr. Butts reiterated his objection to the bill. Mr. Sulzer supported the report of the Conference Committee, and said the bill was a most admirable one. Messrs. Ainsworth and Hennessey also supported the Committee. Supported the Committee.

The following day she was buried. Two or three days later the grave was opened and it was found that she had, as was feared, been buried alive.

The glass in the coffin was broken to fragments. The body lay face downward and was in a condition of fearful contortion. The hands were cut and bloodstained and the hair torn out.
